

Independent Association of Framingham State Alumni

Annual Meeting

May 31, 2008

Members of the Independent Association of Framingham State Alumni gathered at the FSC Ecumenical Center on May 31, 2008 to hear about activities of the past year and to consider changes to the bylaws.

IAFSA President Nancy Hegarty Nelson, '67, welcomed the audience and introduced each speaker. She spoke of the expertise of and synergy among the volunteers who invest their time and skills to run the organization.

Assistant Treasurer Andrew Chaves, '87, read a report of the balance in each of the funds held by the Association.

Marilyn Booth Manzella, '69, Executive Director reviewed the events of the past year and looked ahead to the goals for the next year.

Virginia Baldi Ferguson, '59, Chair of the Amelia Davis Fund, reported on the committee's work during the past year. The fund is currently providing regular financial assistance to four members. She asked for suggestions of alums who could benefit from an occasional note of cheer.

Director Robert Crowley, '80 read the report of the Ellen Hyde Fund that was prepared by the Fund Chair Gloria Aspesi, '57.

All the reports were approved as presented.

Nancy Nelson reviewed each of the proposed bylaw changes and offered to answer any questions or concerns. Following a motion to accept the changes, the body voted unanimously to accept the proposed bylaws.

Nancy Nelson expressed her appreciation to those in attendance and adjourned the meeting.